Name	Date
of the other students. She laugh looks. Franklin gets along well we tries hard to ignore Kathleen's angry with her. Yesterday, he so from school, and heard her fathe Franklin started to feel sorry for Kathleen makes fun of Franklin Franklin do? Should he stand uf Kathleen? Should he say somet the day before, when her father he keep this to himself? What Franklin does not defend himself.	fun of him almost every day in front his at his clothes and the way that he with most of the children at school and teasing, but many times he also gets haw Kathleen's father picking her up r yelling at her and calling her names. Or Kathleen. The next day at school, in and calls him names. What should up for himself or try to be kinder to hing to Kathleen about what he saw picked her up from school, or should at might the other students think if helf by getting angry with Kathleen? here someone is being unkind to you you do in Franklin's situation?	