
The Wall

LTM H.S. WOTP / ACTIVE

What goals for end product?

- to introduce a number of building trades
 - safety in the shop
 - rough carpentry framing of a wall
 - make a basic electrical circuit
 - drywall, painting, tiling
-

Why?

- hands on activities with concrete end product
 - opportunity for team teaching
 - variety of individual and team work for students
 - project based
 - cross-curricular
 - skills have real world applications
 - risking and learning together
-

Components of project

Exploring carpentry & building trades

Lettering and perspective

Reading a shop drawing

Making a shop drawing

Measuring (fractions) & estimating materials

Using hand tools, Using power tools

What is an electric circuit?

Building walls, making the circuit

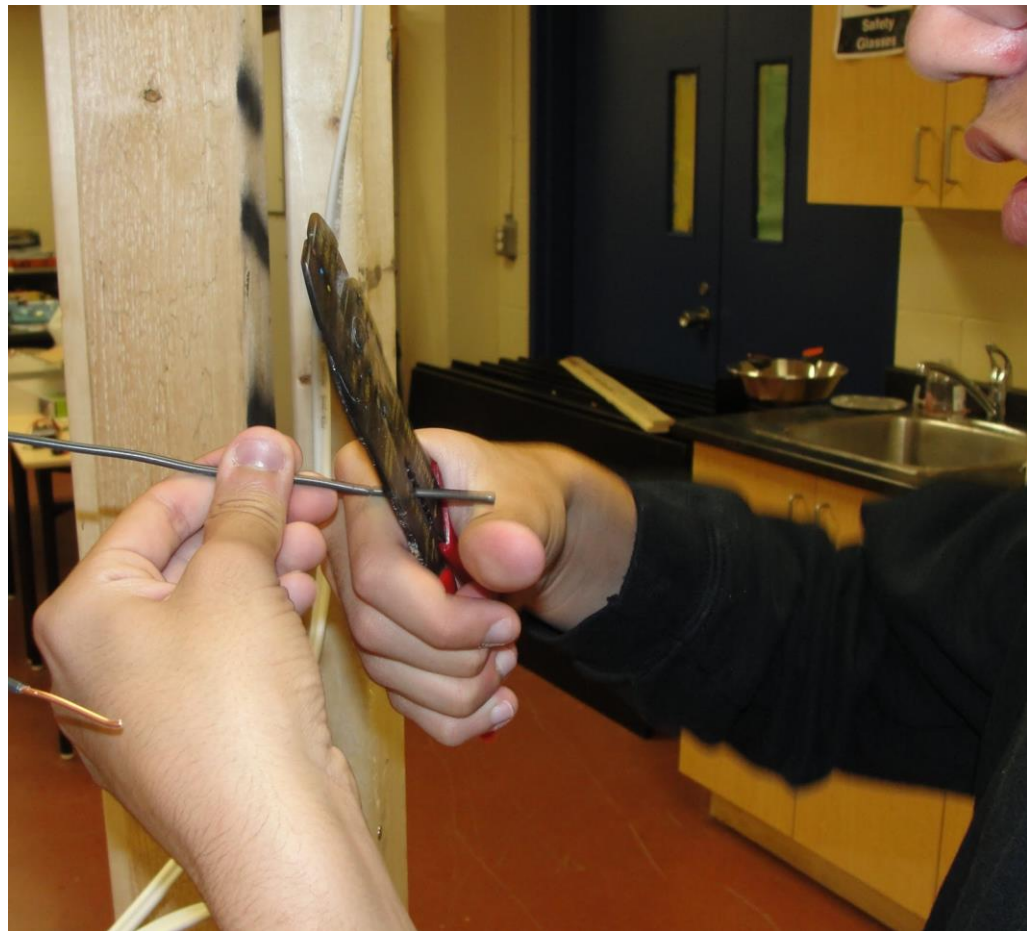

Evaluation

1. Participation
 2. Working with Tools
 3. Behaviours
 4. Self-evaluation
-

Positive outcomes

Learning about building trades - experiential activities (many hours)

“Can we go to the lab today?”

Leadership & responsibility

Adopting behaviour suitable for work situations

Taking pride in accomplishments

